NOVÉ MĚSTO NA MORAVĚ

RADIO EQUIPMENT AND SPECIAL FREQUENCIES

To avoid any potential problems and / or delays in evaluation of your request please follow this basic information:

1. In accordance with the Czech telecommunication law the request for temporary licence must be delivered to the Czech Telecommunication Office (CTO) 15 days at the earliest but no later than 3 working days before start of frequency utilisation.
2. The fee for frequencies is 3000 CZK netto (any charge for international transfer must be paid by applicant) for one temporary licence. Separate individual licence is issued to each radiocommunication service (fixed, mobile, broadcasting...). The CTO will send you info for payment (number of licences) when we process the application.
3. Payment of the fee must be confirmed (e.g. scan of bank order, account statement, transaction report, ...).
4. If the request is refused, the payment is sent back to the applicant.
5. Payment must be sent to the bank account of the Czech Telecommunication Office:
account number: 19-60426011/0710
constant symbol: 308
variable symbol: 11xxxxxx
(where xxxxxx means the date of start of frequency utilisation (e.g. 20120831))
swift code: CNBACZPP
IBAN: CZ36 0710 0000 1900 6042 6011 Czech National Bank
6. Request must contain contacts and applicant's responsible person (applicant's full postal address, e-mail, fax - if any).
7. Requests shall be sent to:
Czech Telecommunication Office
P.O.BOX 02
225 02 Prague 25
Czech Republic
fax: +420 224004 823
e-mail: podatelna@ctu.cz
8. We recommend you to send requests to the central e-mail address podatelna@ctu.cz instead of sending them directly to the e-mail address of employees. Remember that any person can be out of office. There is a risk that your request could not be handled in time. The central e-mail address is regularly checked and all the inputs are forwarded to the responsible persons.
9. The CTO communicate and accept applications for temporary licence written in English.
